For the purposes of the contract, no shares representing Novabase’s share capital or cash were placed at the financial intermediary’s disposal.

The Liquidity Contract shall be suspended, notably, in the following events:

- In case there is any breach, by one of the parties, of its contractual obligations, notwithstanding the possibility of termination of the Liquidity Contract by the compliant party;
- In case, in accordance with CaixaBI’s criteria acting reasonably, there are any other events that may give rise to significant changes in the market or in the volatility of the price of the shares.

The Liquidity Contract shall be immediately and automatically terminated if, in CaixaBI’s judgement, there is an objective conflict between the rights and obligations arising from the Liquidity Contract and the law, or any applicable regulation, public practice, or orientation publicized by any governmental, financial or tax authority and in case CaixaBI is suspended as an authorized market member. Novabase may also terminate the Liquidity Agreement at any time, without due cause, by sending a written communication to CaixaBI, with a 30 day prior notice.
